Integrationists At Cambridge Threaten March

CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP)—Integrationist leaders, accused by Gov. J. Millard Tawes of hindering negotiations aimed at ending strife in Cambridge, have threatened to resume demonstrations tonight.

Apparently only the arrival of a racial relations committee of the Maryland Bar Association could forestall a demonstration—which is forbidden under modified martial law, enforced by National Guard troops.

The attorneys, drawn almost unwillingly into the dispute as mediators, aren't likely to move that quickly.

"The earliest we would meet would be Monday," said William J. McWilliams, the committee chairman, who said the next regular meeting is set for Wednesday in Baltimore.

Fourteen persons were arrested during a demonstration last Tuesday. Further marches were called off when State Atty. Gen. Thomas B. Finan announced that the bar association committee would be asked to mediate the dispute.

The committee, formed to prevent situations similar to that in Cambridge, agreed to tackle the job after making it plain it did not like the way its services had been suggested by Finan.

The attorney general was due here today "to assure the people of my good faith" in trying to get the lawyers into the town of 12,000 by the weekend. His prospects were not bright.

In a statewide radio-television broadcast Friday night Tawes claimed "leadership of the integration movement in Cambridge is fragmented," and hinders negotiations.

Within 30 minutes, three Negro leaders exhibited a united front while addressing a group of about 100 persons from the tailgate of a truck parked outside the Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church.

"We are ready to demonstrate tomorrow if that committee is not sent in here tomorrow, regardless of what the governor says," Mrs. Gloria Richardson, chairman of the Cambridge Non-violent Action Committee, said.

Stanley Branche, a field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, told the cheering crowd: "We're going to march together, and if need be, we'll go to jail together."

Nine Drown In Seaway Collision

QUEBEC (AP)—A British ore carrier collided with another British vessel in the foggy St. Lawrence river today, killing nine people and leaving a trail of wreckage.

A Roman Catholic priest at the scene said nine bodies were recovered from the water.

Other ships in the area were reported to have picked up eight survivors and were looking for more. The number on board the ill-fated ship, the 13,000-ton Tritonica, was not immediately known.

The collision occurred about 30 miles northeast of here in dense fog on the island or Orleans at about 10 p.m. EST.

The second ship was identified as the 6,000-ton freighter Roanoke Head. There was no report on her damage. She was participating in rescue operations, however.

Navy Yeoman Is Guilty Of Spying

NEW YORK (AP)—Navy Yeoman Nelson C. Drummond has been convicted by a federal court jury of conspiracy to commit espionage for the Soviet Union.

The stocky, mustached Drummond, 34, his wife by his side, blinked Friday night as the verdict was announced but showed no other outward emotion.

The maximum penalty on the conviction is death. Judge Thomas C. Murphy set Aug. 15 for sentencing.

It was the Negro yeoman's second trial on the charges. The first trial ended in a hung jury.

The second jury—10 men and two women, one of the latter a Negro—deliberated 11 hours and 40 minutes before bringing in its verdict on the first count of the two-count indictment.

Murphy declared a mistrial on the second count, which charged Drummond with actually committing espionage acts at the time of his arrest last Sept. 28 in Larchmont, N.Y. The jury reported that it was unable to reach agreement on that count.

On the first count, Drummond was found guilty of conspiring with four Soviet agents in a plot to provide military data, including information on naval weapons systems, maintenance of submarines and electronic equipment.

Drummond admitted during the trial, which started July 8, that he got between $20,000 and $24,000 from Soviet agents over several years. He claimed that the material he sold them was not classified and was harmless.

Drummond, a native of Baltimore, served 16 years in the Navy. His basic salary was $120.95 a month. At the same time he owned a bar and grill in Newport, R.I., where he was stationed.

Drummond was arrested outside a Larchmont diner. FBI agents said he was in the act of passing information to two secretaries of the Soviet United Nations mission. The pair were recalled from this country a few days later.

Negroes Threaten Ford Boycott To Get TV Show Job

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Negro leaders have picked "Hazel" as the first Hollywood television series they want integrated. The program stars Shirley Booth as a rambunctious maid.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People made no demands that the cast be integrated. But it wants the technical staff to include at least one Negro.

If demands aren't met, the NAACP said Friday, it will consider economic sanctions against the show's sponsor—the Ford Motor Company.

William Dozier, vice president in charge of production at Screen Gems, the studio which makes "Hazel" said that the technicians used are provided by the Hollywood craft unions under a union-shop agreement.

"If they choose to send us a Negro technician," said Dozier, "We will be very pleased."

No Bias Vs Ford

Said James Tolbert, president of the NAACP Hollywood-Beverly Hills chapter: "If the person paying the bills says, 'I want a Negro in that crew,' it will happen."

Herbert Hill, national labor secretary of the NAACP, told a news conference here that "we have no bias against Ford." He said "Hazel" was chosen because its production crew for the 1964-65 season hadn't yet been selected.

At the same meeting Hill told of some of the demands given both labor and management officials by the NAACP.

Hill said the Negroes are demanding that Hollywood change "stereotyped patterns of the past" and show Negroes in roles as professional people in the same manner they are shown in roles as menial laborers.

NAACP spokesmen said they were satisfied with the opening negotiations. They said the studio and union representatives accepted the Negro demands "without rancor."

One In Each Day

The demands also were reported to include requests that Negroes be used in television commercials and that there be at least one Negro in a regular role in each television series.

Other reported demands were: In theatrical films, for each nine non-Negroes employed in the cast, one Negro must be employed. The figure was based on the estimate that 20 million Negroes comprise one-ninth of the nation's 180 million population.

Negroes also should be given one-ninth representation on movie technical crews.

Establishment of a civil rights grievance committee to give Negroes an opportunity to seek redress without fear of retaliation by a union or employer.

Organization of apprenticeship programs to train Negroes for all types of jobs in the industry.

Governors Cool On Civil Rights

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's effort to put the 55th annual Governors' Conference on record for strong civil rights action appeared marked for defeat today.

The best the New York governor seemed likely to salvage from an effort that appeared to be designed to revive his nose-diving campaign for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination might be a non-conference resolution signed by some Republican and Democratic state executives.

Out of a possible conference attendance of about 50 governors—including those of the territories—19 told the Associated Press they intended to vote for, and eight to oppose, on Monday's first business session a change in the conference rules which would require unanimous approval—instead of the present two-thirds majority—for the adoption of any resolution. The rules can be changed by a majority vote of those present.

Rockefeller has proposed a series of resolutions. One of these calls for cooperation by the state executives with President Kennedy in "achieving equal rights and opportunities regardless of race, creed or color." It also would set up a continuing conference committee to police civil rights.

Nation Awaiting Afternoon Sight Of Sun Eclipse

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Scientists and children, and people of all occupations and ages, joined in common celestial cause this morning—hoping for clear skies to see an eclipse of the sun.

The rendezvous of moon and sun will be visible during afternoon hours throughout the continental United States, but with the moon covering only part of the glowing disc.

Only in a 60-mile-wide swath through Alaska and Maine will the eclipse be total, with day turning to night and stars popping out, with comets possibly becoming visible in their flirtations with the sun.

There, with an array of carefully tuned instruments, hundreds of astronomers and other scientists waited aground for the rare opportunity to analyze the sun's pearly halo or corona, its temperatures and changing structure, the bending of starlight passing close to the sun, the airglow, and other phenomena.

Racing eastward in airplanes with the moon's swift shadow, American and Canadian scientists will extend their time in the total eclipse by up to 44 seconds. Aground, the eclipse will be total for about 100 seconds in Alaska to about one minute in Maine.

Rocket scientists will be busy, too, firing instrumented rockets from Canadian and U.S. launching sites to measure changes in the ionosphere, the electrified layer high in the earth's atmosphere, and for special observations at great height of the sun's spectrum when the sun first is obscured and then cleared.

Radio astronomers will bounce radio signals off the moon, and by the behavior of the returning echoes trace changes in the ionosphere as night comes suddenly with the eclipse.

The eclipse begins in Japan at dawn, and the path of totality then sweeps about 10,000 miles in 2 and 3 hours. It zips across the Pacific to touch Alaska late in the morning, Alaska time, then across Canada and into Maine at about 4:45 p.m., EST.

Maine expected a heavy influx of visitors, hoping to see the sunlight cut to one-millionth of its normal intensity, and such phenomena as Bailey's Beads, the last flashes of the sun shining through valleys and gorges on the moon's rim, and—when the sun is totally covered—possibly the licking tongues of great outbursts of incandescent gases—the solar prominences.

For everyone outside the lucky zone, it will still be an interesting show, with the moon gradually blocking part of the sun's face up to some point short of total, then moving clear. Skies will dim a bit where the eclipse is great enough.

Cardinal Cushing Quiets Caroline

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—President Kennedy settled down today for a weekend of family frolicking, yachting and golf—after playing second fiddle Friday to an eminent churchman.

Kennedy planned to do some cruising aboard the White House yacht Honey Fitz, some swimming over the side, and perhaps get in another abbreviated round of golf—weather permitting.

Boston's Richard Cardinal Cushing put Kennedy in the shadows at the sometimes solemn, sometimes rollicking baptism of the President's 11th nephew, 15-day-old Christopher George Kennedy—the eighth child and fifth son of Atty. Gen. and Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy.

Kennedy and daughter Caroline, age 5, drove together to the church—and both had their difficulties with the cardinal.

Caroline's chattering after the ceremony caught the Cardinal's attention and he quieted her with this admonishment:

"If you don't keep quiet, I'll take up a collection."

Highways Safer

LANSING (AP)—Highway Commissioner John Mackie said Friday that studies of traffic deaths on Michigan's freeways have shown as much as a 73 per cent reduction compared with the old highways they replaced. "This means roughly that out of every four persons who were killed on the inadequate old highway, three would have been living if they had had the new freeways in time," Mackie told the Lansing Rotary Club.

Strike Avoidance Hope Is Chiefly In Time Extension

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress is looking up to move promptly on President Kennedy's recommendations to avert a nationwide railroad strike but few members think it can act in a week.

Congressional committee staffs have done considerable research and hearings are expected to start in both branches within a day or so after Kennedy sends up his proposals on Monday.

Legislators said the length of time needed to pass a law will depend on the depth of the President's recommendations.

Sen. Lister Hill, D-Ala., chairman of the Senate Labor Committee, said it "would be moving mighty fast" to get the bill through in one week before the July 29 deadline.

But there was some hope that if Congress showed a determination to act by that time, the railroads and unions might again decide to postpone the showdown.

Basis For Lawmaking

Under an agreement made at the White House July 10, the carriers agreed to hold off instituting new work rules—which eventually would eliminate 65,000 jobs—until July 29. The five operating unions also agreed not to call a strike before then.

The President received a report Friday on the facts and issues in the dispute. Its contents will be made public today.

The President is expected to use the report as a basis for recommending legislation to solve the dispute and avert or stop a nationwide strike.

One highly placed member of Congress said he understood Kennedy would propose a narrowly restricted solution applying only to the current dispute.

According to this version, the three-man board headed by Judge Samuel Rosenman which previously made recommendations for settling the argument would be called back into the case. This time it would make detailed recommendations for solving all phases.

Needed For Safety: Plea

The work rules would be held in abeyance during this reconsideration.

Then there would be another 30-day period for bargaining by the rail lines and unions on these findings. Any items left unresolved would be settled by the board.

The dispute involves what the carriers call "featherbedding." They want to eliminate jobs, largely those of diesel freight firemen, which they maintain are unnecessary and are costing the railroads and the public $600 million a year.

The unions have fought the proposals to institute the new work rules, contending the jobs are necessary for safety and training.

Hectic Contest To Pick Beauty Closes Tonight

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A Miss Universe pageant plagued by a missing contestant, a freak car accident, an appendectomy and heat, went into final rehearsals for tonight's crowning.

One of the 15 finalists will be crowned Miss Universe of 1963 by Norma Beatriz Nolan of Argentina on a nationally-televized program (CBS-10 p.m., EST).

While pageant officials, with the help of four interpreters, put the 92 lovelies through their paces Miss Nolan planned to visit her predecessor in the hospital.

Former Queen Marlene Schmidt of Germany, the wife of actor Ty Hardin, was stricken with acute appendicitis Thursday. She hoped to attend tonight's festivities in a wheelchair, but doctors said the stately blonde would still be in bed.

Miss England, Susan Pratt, was in the same hospital, recovering from a hairline fracture of her left leg. A car bumped into the pretty blonde the night she arrived. Susan planned to watch the pageant on television.

One of the contestants, Miss Dahomey, never showed up. Pageant headquarters announced several times she would compete, but said Friday night they still don't know where Francine Marcos is.

Physicians had the most trouble with Miami's record 90-degree heat. Eight girls fainted in one outdoor evening ceremony, and several were given medical aid during an afternoon photographic session.

Although all 92 girls were to participate in the final program, the focus was centered on the 15 finalists.

They paraded in bathing suits, native costume and formal gowns, then gave a one-minute speech or their country.

Amusement Park Desegregates

BALTIMORE (AP)—An 11-year battle by Negroes for admission to Gwynn Oak Amusement Park will end Aug. 28 when owners lower racial barriers at the suburban Baltimore park and picnic grounds.

Agreement in the dispute was reached late Friday night, only hours before integrationists had planned to resume mass demonstrations.

Under the agreement, the park owners, James, David and Arthur Price, promised to end racial discrimination at Gwynn Oak Aug. 28 and to drop all charges against about 380 persons arrested in demonstrations July 4 and 7.

Western U.P. And Wayne Top State TB Areas

Michigan's greatest tuberculosis problem is in the western Upper Peninsula and in Wayne (Detroit) County.

The western U. P. has only 2.5 per cent of the state's population and Wayne has a third of it.

The Michigan Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association in a study of the state's TB problem, says case rates and death rates, used alone have limitations as a measure of tuberculosis problem in the counties, so it uses a combination of case and death rates to create an index as a single measure of the problem.

The index for Michigan as a whole is 33.5. Wayne's index is 56.8 and five other Lower Peninsula counties also top the state average, but not in the proportion of the western U. P. counties, which have these indexes:

Marquette 45.1, Alger 50.7, Dickinson 40.3, Baraga 46.4, Iron 60.6, Gogebic 73.8, Ontonagon 79.4, Houghton 61.8 and Keweenaw 90.4.

In the eastern U. P. the county indexes are: Delta 23, Menominee 28, Schoolcraft 26.2, Luce 2.2, Mackinac 30.2 and Chippewa 23.3.

The distribution of new active TB cases in U. P. counties is: Chippewa 6, Mackinac 3, Luce 1, Schoolcraft 2, Alger 7, Delta 15, Menominee 4, Marquette 25, Dickinson 5, Iron 7, Baraga 4, Gogebic 15, Ontonagon 7, Houghton 18 and Keweenaw 2. These figures are annual averages for the three years 1959-61.

Michigan anticipates 10,000 new cases of active tuberculosis in the next four years. Of these, about 7,500 will occur among persons presently infected, many of them unaware that they harbor TB germs.

Another 2,500 will be persons not yet infected who will be exposed to some one with an "active" case of the disease.

This prediction is made by Miss Minetta Nicolai, statistical analyst for the Michigan Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, state Christmas Seal agency.

A recovered TB victim and 20-year veteran in the Christmas Seal agency's battle against tuberculosis, Miss Nicolai included the estimate in the ninth edition of "Tuberculosis in Michigan," one of the most complete statewide analyses of the TB problem published in the nation.

About 1,500,000 persons in Michigan are presently infected with TB bacilli, and although the great majority — called "inactives" — will never develop "clinically significant tuberculosis," this "mountain of infection" will contribute some 7,500 new cases of "active" TB by 1967, Miss Nicolai predicts.

During the same period, another 2,500 persons will be infected by Michigan residents who now have or may soon develop active tuberculosis, she said.

Other highlights of the study: • Thirty-five per cent of all new active cases of TB occur in males over 45. Males under 45 contribute another 30 per cent. Females of all ages contribute 35 per cent. This pattern has changed drastically from 10 years ago when nearly one-half of all cases occurred in persons of both sexes between the ages of 20 and 44.

• Improved detection and treatment techniques, including many pioneered or supported by Christmas Seal associations throughout the state, saved Michigan taxpayers an estimated $14 million in fiscal 1961-62 alone. TB hospitalization cost, financed through tax sources, were $12,587,390 in that year. Had it not been for improved techniques, this cost would have been $26,594,000.

• Wayne County contributes more than one-half of the state's tuberculosis problem, and 14 other counties, all with populations over 100,000, contribute more than one-fourth. Within Wayne County, incidence rates skyrocket in slum areas.

• Nearly one person in six in Michigan is screened annually either by chest x-ray or skin test, a tremendous aid in reducing spread of the disease.

• The average annual reduction in TB case rates must be stepped up if Michigan is to meet nationally-established goals. For eight years between 1952 and 1960, this average was seven per cent. The 10-year goal for the 1960's calls for an annual reduction of 10 per cent.

Tech Gets Grant For Cancer Study

HOUGHTON—Michigan Tech's Department of Biological Sciences has received a $4,890 research grant from the Michigan Cancer Foundation for an electron microscope study of pre-cancerous liver cells in rats.

Dr. James D. Spain, head of the department, said this is part of a long-range project aimed at determining how chemically-induced liver cancer develops. The Michigan Cancer Foundation, he said, is an independent foundation with offices in Detroit.

Dog Ordinance Change Studied

Escanaba's dog ordinance is due for changes which will bring it into closer alliance with the state statute and permit the city to make fuller use of the services of the county dog warden and the county dog pound.

City Manager George Harvey has advised the City Council that administrative personnel and City Attorney John G. Erickson are examining the dog ordinance in relationship to:

1 - Continuing the city requirement for rabies inoculation of dogs before they can be licensed; and 2 - Possibility of transferring to the county dog warden the responsibility of holding stray dogs for a specified period.

"A claim was received from Ed Fordney of Escanaba some time ago regarding the destruction of his dog," Harvey said. "The city attorney has ruled that the act of the city in turning the dog over to the County was the cause of the damage and therefore the city has a liability."

Harvey said that he consulted with County Clerk William Butler regarding the $50 claim and whether the county would share in it, since the county was also involved.

Iron County Sheriff Seeks Walk-Away

CHYSTAL FALLS—With one of two escaped prisoners back in custody sheriff's officers are using bloodhounds to track down the second man in the area of Brule Mountain.

Robert Wehrheim, 20, of Glenview, Ill., was captured Wednesday evening after he and a companion, Albert LeRoux Button, 20, of Iron River, walked away from the county jail early Tuesday evening while on a work detail. Button is still at large and is considered dangerous.

Sheriff's officers said that both men had only 15 days remaining on their terms when they walked away.

Area Employment At Peak; 60-Day Outlook Is Good

There are currently 623 persons in the Delta-Schoolcraft area registered for work with the Michigan Employment Security Commission, according to James Damitz, manager of the local office.

Damitz said that while the figure is about 200 under that of one month ago, it is still 150 over that of one year ago. Of the total figure 535 of the registrants are from Delta County and the rest, 88, from Schoolcraft.

He pointed out that seasonal employment has apparently reached its peak and will continue at this high level for the next 60-day period.

According to Damitz, at present the Hansen Canning Co. of Gladstone is processing the pea harvest and is employing about 80 workers, 50 male and 30 female.

U.P. Fair Marks 35th Anniversary

With a number of Upper Peninsula communities celebrating Centennials this year, the U. P. State Fair is also marking an anniversary—the 35th year of progress in promoting the agricultural and industrial development of the region.

The first U. P. State Fair was held in 1928, and names that have meant much to the people in many counties of the Peninsula were listed in that first premium book; John T. Turnbull of Newberry, Herbert E. Perkins of Marquette, Earl D. McDonald of Calumet, A. Wesley Clarke of Sault Ste. Marie and others were directors.

The late George E. Harvey of Escanaba was secretary-manager of the Fair, Senator H. J. Rushton was described as the "father of the U. P. Fair", and A. A. Lundgaard of Cornell was chairman of the Fair Board. A. W. Thompson of Iron Mountain was vice chairman.

"Among some of the first exhibitors was Jack Stephens of Hubbell, who has except for the World War II years exhibited poultry continuously ever since," said Ray LaPorte, the present secretary-manager. He named others who have been Fair exhibitors through the years:

Mrs. Arthur Faccio in home economics; Mrs. Pearl M. Brindley of Pickford with Hereford cattle; Mrs. John Wicklander of Escanaba, home economics; A. Wender & Sons, Iron Mountain, Holsteins; Mrs. Elmer Hansen, Powers, who with her family has more than 200 U. P. State Fair ribbons for exhibits in poultry, agriculture, 4-H, home economics, hobby, art, antiques and floriculture.

The 1963 Fair, Aug. 13-18, is dedicated to these pioneers and loyal supporters of the exposition.

Friday Squall Causes Wide Damage Wind, Rain Lash Escanaba, Damaging Trees, Buildings

The residence of E. G. Bennett, 809 Lake Shore Drive, was festooned with a big limb of an American elm from its front yard by Friday night's fierce wind and rainstorm. (Daily Press Photos)

This old box elder tree on Ludington St. at the entry road to the municipal dock in Ludington Park was snapped off by winds that got up to 40 mph in Friday night's storm.

The quick adaptability of children is pictured in play on the sidewalk of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Douck, 1119 6th Ave. S., where a maple tree was snapped off and tossed across the walk by Friday night's windstorm.

Thunderstorms dumped nearly 1 1/2 inches of rain onto the city and lashed the area with gusty winds up to 40 miles an hour last evening, causing considerable damage to trees and buildings.

Today repairs and tidying up were under way with fair skies and the promise of pleasant weekend weather.

Workers began rebuilding a large section of masonry block wall that was pushed in by the winds at a bowling alley construction project on Ludington St. west of 23rd St. The structure is being built for Marvin Pouliot.

Plate glass windows were broken at the Bark River Culvert & Equipment Co. building and at the Red Owl Store; a house trailer was blown over at Phil's Used Car lot and at the height of the storm a tree fell on a parked car near Municipal Dock, damaging the top and windshield. Police did not report the names of the occupants.

Trees and branches were broken at numerous locations. City police had a list of 18 places where there were calls for removal of debris by city crews. Escanaba electric utility crews were busy restoring service to a number of areas in the city where power had failed.

Two persons were injured in a car collision at the height of the storm about 8:10 p. m. The drivers were Roger A. Trotter, 1820 1st Ave. S., who was ticketed for failing to use due caution and Joseph Valente, Kipling.

Injured were passengers in the car, Eileen Valente, 21, of Kipling and Carol Kemmer, 18, of 318 S. 12th St. Both of the young women suffered blows on the head, were treated at St. Francis Hospital and released. The accident occurred at 8th and Ludington.

Telephone service was interrupted on about 250 lines, caused by cable trouble and wind damage. It was reported by Michigan Bell Telephone Co. here. The interruptions were county-wide, will be mostly cleared up by tonight, and crews will continue to work through the weekend.

At Gladstone several large trees were blown down but there was no interruption of electrical service. At the Gladstone yacht basin a small powerboat broke from its moorings and washed up on the shore of the lagoon.

S. E. Decker, U. S. Weather Bureau meteorologist at Escanaba, said the storm began building up in the early evening with thunder and lightning. Heavy rain began about 7:25 o'clock.

"Through the night a total of 1.41 inches of rain fell, with 1.25 inches of precipitation occurring within 35 minutes at the height of the storm," he reported. "The strong wind from the west and northwest attained a velocity of about 36 miles an hour and up to peaks of 40 miles an hour in gusts."

The downpour here was the heaviest reported yesterday in Michigan or Wisconsin, although storms were quite general in both states. The rain had its bright side: The forest fire danger is further abated.

The outlook for today and tomorrow is fair and mild.

A hospital went two hours without power, a circus big top fell and several hundred telephones went dead Friday as wind and rain storms lashed opposite ends of the state, the Associated Press reported.

Winds gusted up to 50 miles an hour in southwestern Lower Michigan. No serious injuries were reported.

In the Upper Peninsula's Iron County, Stambaugh General Hospital was without power for two hours.

Circus Flattened
Winds destroyed the Sells Brothers Circus big top at Iron River before an evening performance. The show went on outdoors.

About one quarter of the homes in Iron County had power service interrupted briefly.

Reports of fallen trees and wires came from both storm areas, and from Benzie, Leelanau, Grand Traverse and Antrim counties in northwestern Lower Michigan.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said scattered thundershowers hit most of the state.

Waves Are Threat
Falling trees hit several cars at Niles. At nearby Edwardsburg, three lumber company buildings blew across railroad tracks, blocking train traffic temporarily.

A seiche wave—unstable surface water—of 6 to 10 feet on Lake Michigan prompted the Coast Guard to warn small craft on the lake. The Coast Guard at Holland said it received no damage reports before the all clear was given.

State police said, however, that two docks and a boat were damaged in Pigeon Channel in Ottawa County when water left the channel briefly and then returned with waves of 3 to 5 feet.

Bomb Creates Excitement In San Francisco
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A Navy attack bomber dropped a bomb by mistake on crowded, downtown Market Street Friday during the noon rush to lunch.

The pale blue bomb was a practice one. The gunpowder in it didn't explode. And it hit nobody. But it caused plenty of excitement.

The 25-pound bomb came loose as Lt. R. A. Kiner of Anaheim, Calif., headed his A4A Skyhawk toward a landing at Alameda Naval Air Station after a practice bombing run over California's Central Valley.

The bomb, falling 25,000 feet, missed the crowded sidewalks and gouged a hole in the Middle of Market Street a foot wide and four inches deep. Then it bounced in a 300-foot arc over a five-story building where a fragment hit the IBM building.

Next the Mark 76, Model 5 bomb tore a chunk of concrete from a cornice on the fourth floor of the Phoenix Building on Pine Street more than a block away. Then it thudded to the street and bounced against a Pacific Gas & Electric Co. truck in which three workmen were eating sandwiches.

Indians Parade
PETOSKEY (AP) — Indians from 11 tribes will parade through downtown Petoskey today, marking the opening of the fourth annual All-State Indian Powwow. Highlighting the two-day affair will be the selection of the Michigan Indian Princess tonight.

Controlling Liquor

The Michigan Liquor Control Commission meets in the Upper Peninsula with new leadership and new directions. At the helm of the commission now is a familiar, freckled man who started his professional career chasing bootleggers. He's Don Leonard, former commissioner of the Michigan State Police.

Leonard doesn't drink but he thinks its much better public policy to control the liquor traffic than to prohibit it and his espousal of this view made headlines in Detroit many years ago when the Rev. Mr. Holsapple led Michigan's dry forces and prohibition was the law of the land. Instructed by his superiors in the State Police to address a meeting of dries, Leonard expressed his view of prohibition and then asked to be excused so he could go downriver and knock over some speakeasies.

A lot of things have happened since then and the Michigan Liquor Commission currently is reviewing its legal structure and operating policies to determine if they're suited to the times. It is asking the aid of the liquor industry, the licensed dealers, the public, the tourist industry and other elements concerned with the alcoholic beverage trade.

Michigan opted to become a "monopoly" state in 1933 when the national prohibition act was repealed. By this action the state took over the liquor trade within its boundaries, making itself the sole licensing agency and wholesale distributor. The thinking then was that this government monopoly simplified the control problem. This concept has not been abandoned despite the changes in the intervening 30 years.

Another basic concept of control was limiting the competition among dispensers. To do this liquor licenses were put on a population quota basis, one license to every 1,500 population. This control is retained, but can be changed by reducing the population ratio and thus increasing the number of licenses and there are some pressures to have this done. The counter pressures from licensees ("Who wants more competition?") and dries ("Who wants more saloons?") have thus far been too strong to increase licenses.

There are strong community pressures on the Liquor Control Commission to change its policies because a liquor license is regarded as an indispensable need of large recreation and resort establishments. When a pub with fixture assets worth $1,032 has a liquor license and a swish new bowling alley and recreation center costing $785,000 can't get one, the go-go-go boys want to know what's with it Charlie?

We have changed rather basically in 30 years, from thinking that we must devise liquor control rules that would prevent the return of the well advertised evils of the old pre-prohibition saloon (the brewer owned it) to the need for some liquor control rules which will cope with the recreational and commercial hosting needs of the community.

If a man wants to run a milk bar he can let competition determine his fate, but he can't even get into the liquor business without a license and the state has none to give to new businesses. Inevitably this leads to sharp trading in existing licenses and there's pressure for bribery and other illegal practices. We need only look to the New York Liquor licensing scandal to see what can happen. (Detroit didn't get a Playboy Club.)

Liquor control is under constant suggestion of change—that it dispense with private store outlets (SDD's), that it close the state liquor stores and do only wholesaling, that it issue more licenses, etc. The City of Detroit, seeking growth as a convention center, suggested that it be allowed Sunday sales. The tourist industry thinks there should be more resort (9 months) licenses.

There is no prospect that any system of control can ever satisfy everyone, but the Commission's current general survey of the effectiveness of operations is good business. Now's the time to gripe.

Boredom Makes Badies

We've been all through it again and again. The teenagers are bored. They have no challenges, no useful conflicts. They get into trouble because, whatever else it is, trouble is excitement.

New studies are underscoring anew that this empty, aimless habit of life is as much a fact among well-off youngsters with cars and money as it is with poor lads roaming the streets in the slums.

There has been enough fuss about the educationally underprivileged, the school drop-out, the product of the broken city home, to focus attention on this phase of the matter. Action, of course, is still meager.

But the problem at higher economic levels seems to be dismissed as so much fantasy. The overprivileged youngsters in suburban families resort to vandalism, thievery, drink and a variety of other passing, excitements — while parents pile on the kindly favers.

Little that is wholesome, innocent fun has any appeal these days for the more energetic, aggressive young ones. Sports, dancing, you name it — these things are regarded as "tame."

In a New York Times survey of suburban youth, one boy said: "Yes, some kids drink. Maybe they do it to forget about things."

At 16, what is that they have to forget? The memory of the emptiness of yesterday?

The time of growing up used to be thought of as filled with its own natural excitement — developing one's bodily skills, exploring the world of animals and trees, opening the book of knowledge wide for the first time.

Fortunately, millions of American youngsters still find these wonders along the adolescent trail. But many do not. They are proud of being more mature than their counterparts of a generation ago. But they have lost their innocence while finding nothing to replace it. Overindulgent parents must bear heavy blame for this.

But the youngsters themselves cannot be absolved. If they are mature enough to be half-adults, half-children, they are mature enough to understand they need something better to tie into than tomorrow's "kicks."

We hear a lot these days about the "hidden America," the 30 to 40 million people spread about in city slums, hill country, dying farms, who live in distress, disease, oppression and ignorance.

You don't need to join the Peace Corps to find these folk. They're a half-hour drive from any suburb.

Maybe some of the overprivileged, who can't find anything that appeals to them for more than a few hours at a stretch, ought to go and take a look. There are some challenges there that will be around a good while, worthy of the attention of even the most mature half-adult who ever spun his wheels in suburban idleness.

"Scram—The Honeymoon's Over!"

Edson In Washington Memory Lane

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON—(NEA) — Just as if civil rights problems at home weren't bothering the American government enough, African affairs are coming into the Washington spotlight to complicate the international situation.

They will give the United Nations the gravest test it has had since Soviet Russia proposed its "troika" plan for administering all U. N. activities.

A four-member Africa delegation headed by Mongi Slim of Tunisia is due in New York soon and probably will come to Washington to discuss the South African racial policy of apartheid and Portuguese colonial policies in Angola and Mozambique. Both of these issues will be before the U. N. Security Council in the last 10 days of July and early August.

They will also be important items on the agenda for the General Assembly session opening in mid-September. The question of financing continued support for the Congo will also be a related and most important assembly issue.

The Mongi Slim mission was set up by the new Organization of African Unity, founded at Addis Ababa in May.

The sentiment expressed at this Pan-African conference of 31 independent countries was that South Africa—which did not attend the meeting and is not an OAU member—should be expelled from the United Nations or that sanctions be applied against her. Similar views were expressed on Portugal.

If the Slim mission expects to have South Africa and Portugal excluded from U. N. affairs, it is probably in for a disappointment.

The Security Council can vote only to recommend exclusion of a U. N. member by the General Assembly. The question is subject to veto in the Security Council. How the Soviet Union would vote on this is unknown.

Finding The Way

Dream - Or Reality?

By RALPH W. LOEW, D. D.

From time to time, every person faces the great decision. Every day is filled with the apparently "small choices." Ultimately a person faces the enormous choices, and discovers anew Markham's insistence that "choices are the hinges of destiny."

There is the tale of the boy who had lived for years in the world of blindness.

He thought of the little creek and the willow tree as a bit of heaven. He had come to know the girl at the refreshment stand by the side of the road. The boy and the girl believed that they were in love. In his mind's eye this blind youth thought of her loveliness, envisioned the prosaic roadside meeting place as a beautiful paradise.

At this moment, he faced a crisis. A surgeon told him that it might be possible for him to see. He had prayed for this moment—and yet? Would the girl who loved him still be the loveliest girl in the world? Would it be better to continue in a world in which he knew he could live, than to risk happiness in a world of sight? That was his question. It is ours.

We pray "Thy kingdom come," and yet we are not certain what would happen in our world if His kingdom did come even through us. We pray "Thy will be done" and yet if it were done through us it would encourage a personal revolution. Do we want these prayers answered, or would it be better to live in a dream world? Is it better to have illusions of piety than to confront the bitter truth involved in expressing righteousness in this demanding world?

What would happen if our prayers were answered?

We all have dreams and, for some, the illusions are built into a kind of landscape. When Jesus said, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free," he was not only referring to the truth of the willow tree and the creek and the girl. He was speaking of the truth of God, which gives meaning to all of these. To know the truth about life, and to see his purposes in one another, is to discover a reality among realities. It is the knowledge of this fact that could make it possible for us to see the meaning of our facts.

What did the young man in the story really do? How would you finish the story? Jesus told of healing the blind and enabling them to see. He rudely shattered illusions and compassionately pointed men to the truth. And all who found sight in their minds and hearts could answer simply, "Whereas I was blind, now I see."

There is no joy comparable. It will be a different creek, a different willow, and perhaps, a different image of the girl. It will have truth, the freedom to choose, and the liberty to love. There is sight for the inwardly blind.

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals Thursday delayed court-ordered desegregation of public schools in Mobile, Ala., until 1964.

The action came in the court's modification of its July 9 decision which directed the Mobile City-County School Board to submit a desegregation plan, starting with the first grade, by Aug. 1.

The modification postponed the deadline for submission of the stairstep plan until Aug. 19. A district court hearing was set for Nov. 14, thus putting off the effective date for any plan to be put into operation until next year.

Schools Fight Medicare Pact

ST. JOSEPH (AP)—A new legal suit was on file in Circuit Court today against an agreement between Berrien County and a Chicago firm proposing to operate a $2.5 million medical care facility.

The St. Joseph Board of Education seeks a permanent injunction to prevent enactment of lease arrangements involving the county and Doyle and Associates in the facility, a county hospital annex. The school district claims the project would have adverse effect on tax allocation.

It earlier withdrew as a party plaintiff in a suit brought by the attorney general's office which claims the lease-purchase agreement between the county and Doyle is illegal.

Trial of the state suit starts July 25 at Niles. The county is enjoined, meanwhile, from paying out any money for construction work on the hospital annex.

Negro Molester Killed In Flight

MARION, Ark. (AP)—The death of a 17-year-old Negro shot by a group of white citizens and sheriff's deputies after a woman said he molested her daughter was ruled justifiable homicide Thursday.

Coroner T. H. McGough, who conducted the inquest, said there was no testimony as to who fired the bullet which killed Andrew Lee Anderson of nearby Vincent, Ark., Wednesday.

The mother testified she saw a Negro molesting her eight-year-old daughter on a lawn near her home in Marion. She said he ran and she started driving down the street yelling for help.

Several white men and sheriff's deputies chased Anderson into a bean field, where he was shot in the leg with a high-powered rifle. The bullet severed an artery.

House of the Week

Traditional Appeal: This charming and uncluttered two-story home will fit comfortably on a 50-foot-wide lot. It contains four bedrooms, 2½ baths. Exterior materials are brick veneer and horizontal siding with a touch of vertical boarding in the gables and some shutters and flower boxes for trim.

In this era of expanding cities it isn't necessarily the price of the house, but the high cost of the land it's built on, that might prevent you from owning your own home.

Many banks and mortgage companies insist that the price of the lot not exceed 20 per cent of the total cost, a requirement that could leave quite a few folks out in the cold.

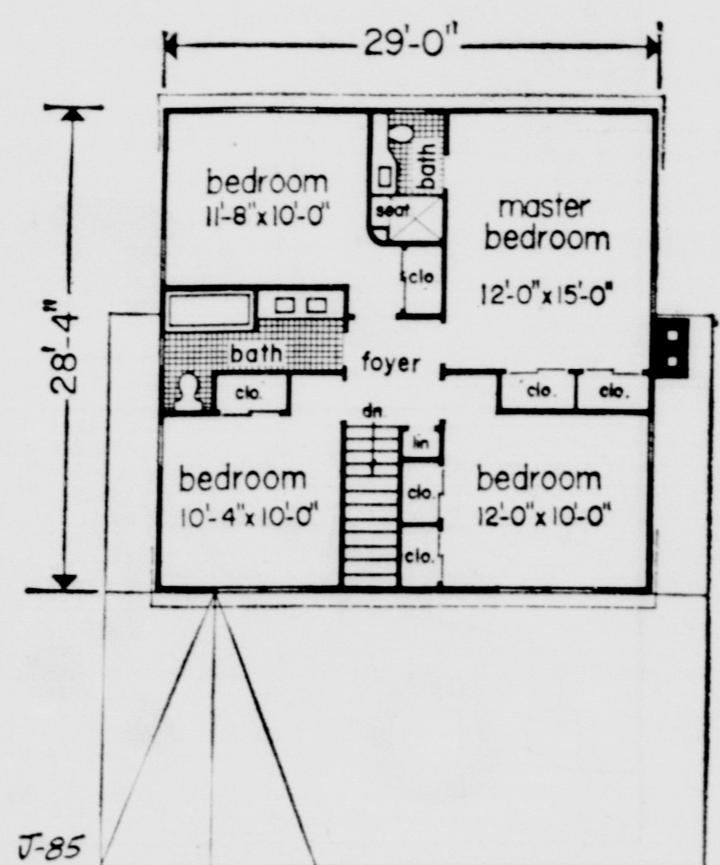

Today's House of the Week solves this very real problem—and does it in a charmingly old-fashioned way.

It's a two-story house, design J-85 in the series, which provides a total of 1,917 square feet of living area on its first and second floors yet will fit comfortably on a 50-foot-wide plot—even smaller where local codes permit; overall dimensions are only 34'6" by 44'3" deep.

Although an "old timer" in basic design features, the house is by no means out of date. On the contrary, it is perfectly attuned to modern living right down to the eat-in kitchen and the glamorous tiled bath. Its designer is architect Samuel Paul.

It contains eight full rooms, including four bedrooms, 2½ baths, a spacious entrance foyer and center hall, a mud room and laundry, an attached garage and a full basement. Each bedroom is located on a corner, with resulting cross ventilation.

The shape of the house is the secret of its built-in economy. A basically square plan means less perimeter, which in turn means less material, less insulation, less heating cost, less of everything with a price tag—but MORE living area per square foot, MORE house per dollar.

The unusual facade of the house, with the rear part of the first and second floors indented from the front, gives it a lower silhouette, sort of a one-story appearance, which plainly modernizes its effect but leave it strictly traditional in over-all design.

Additional Details
Beginning with its charming front porch, everything about this house is quietly tasteful and inviting. The exterior is a combination of brick veneer and horizon-

The spacious entry foyer has two oversized closets, eliminating crowding and making it a truly gracious reception center.

A series of attractive arches separates the foyer from the living room—another out-of-the-ordinary feature which gives the design a personality of its own, and also enlarges the living room visually. An optional feature is the pair of artificial planters at either end of the arches.

Alabama Schools May Divide Sexes

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Gov. George Wallace has unveiled a new plan to try to maintain separation of the races if any Alabama school is forced to integrate: separate white and Negro classrooms in the same school. If that system fails, he said, he favors as a last resort the segregation of pupils by sex—boys in one school, girls in another.

Wallace declared here that bills to carry out these proposals are being drafted for action by the current session of the state legislature.

Light Sentences Spur Road Toll

By F. GRANGER WEILL
Editor

PORT HURON (AP)—Slap-on-the-wrist sentences for traffic violators fail to deter the culprits—or the rest of us—from similar violations.

Looking at the record in the state, this article is almost on the order of a whimsy.

The record isn't bad—it's terrible! In some counties people say out of the side of their mouths, "if you want to commit legalized murder, use a car."

Spend several hours if you wish with one of the state's leading traffic safety experts. He'll go around with this and that suggestion for improving traffic safety but when you get all done, he'll throw up his hands and admit that unless our courts insist on stricter and more uniform implementation of our traffic laws, the end of the rising traffic accident rate is not in sight.

Just a minute, judge, we're not shooting directly at you. Our gun is aimed at your clientele—the great mass of people—but you get the ricochet.

When the experts get down to business and put the glass eye on the situation, they'll admit the courts daily because their attitude is affirmed by public sentiment (Jury decisions in some areas consistently reflect this.)

Sure, it would help but the job in Grand Rapids passed out the same sentence for reckless driving or drunk driving, or negligent homicide as did the judge in Port Huron—not the identical sentence, of course, but similar fines or jail terms, tempering justice with and not with maulin or political considerations.

Sure, it would help but the job won't be done until the public regards the traffic violator, the drunk driver, the death-car driver, the driver of the car in which people are maimed for life, on a par with the man who shouts "fire" in a crowded theater, threatens the bank teller with a pistol, or smashes his neighbor's jaw in a barroom fracas.

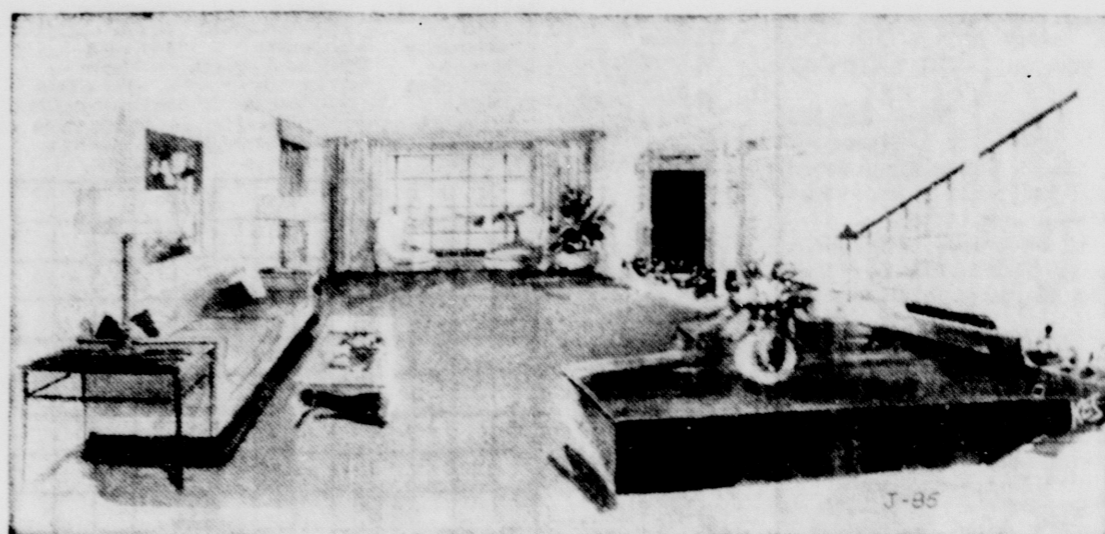

Unfortunately, in some counties, death-car drivers "properly handled" before a court of law will usually come out of their difficulty with a probation sentence.

Unfortunately, the driver caught weaving down the road under the influence of liquor—a menace to himself and fellows—will go scot free or admit he was driving recklessly and be fined, say, $25 and costs.

Unfortunately, the judges who take the bit in their teeth and get really drastic with traffic law violators may be unpopular.

But, they'll have a clear conscience and the knowledge that they have saved us from death, or what is worse, a life of uselessness through serious injury.

Newspaper want ads are a big sell! Eight hundred million was spent on classified ads last year more than for all television spot announcements or radio advertising.

Formality Plus: A series of arches divides this handsome 13'4" by 21' living room from the central foyer and hallway, enlarges the room visually, and adds to its formality. Artificial planters at each end of the arches are an optional feature.

formal area enhanced by a bow window. There is no need to enter this room except for formal dining—it is a "dead end"—room—and so there is no unnecessary wear and tear on its carpet and furnishings.

The informal area, which includes the kitchen and family room with the adjoining rear patio, is a large family's delight. There is space in the kitchen for an informal dinette large enough for six.

A pass-through from the kitchen makes the family room ideal for light snacks. The fireplace is located in family room rather than the living room because architect Paul designed it to be used. Sliding doors lead to the patio.

The kitchen is U-shaped for step-saving convenience. Double windows over the double-bowl sink allow excellent backyard supervision as well as plenty of natural light and air. An equally efficient service area adjoins the kitchen, with laundry facilities, a lavatory, a mud foyer and a roomy storage closet.

The second floor plan is almost a perfect square, using to the fullest every square inch of its 822 square feet. A private bath with a tile stall shower adjoins the master bedroom, and an especially lavish compartmented main bath with a double basin vanity serves the family bedrooms. Both baths have outside windows.

Ann Landers

Egg-Timers Click

Dear Ann Landers: As the owner of a neighborhood hardware store I would like to thank you, personally, for stimulating business.

Recently you published a letter in your column about a teenage girl who did a great deal of talking on the telephone. Her mother decided to put a 5-minute time limit on her phone conversations. She bought an automatic egg-timer and placed it by the telephone.

Since that letter appeared I have sold seven egg-timers to mothers of teenagers. Each mother told me she got the idea from Ann Landers' column.

One woman who came in to buy an egg-timer bought a power lawn mower. Another woman paid her bill which was long overdue. My best wishes to you, Ann, and my thanks. — HAPPY MERCHANT

Dear Happy: You're welcome. But I hope I made it clear that a mother who sets the egg-timer at 5 minutes is a bit hard-boiled.

A 15 minute limit is more realistic and not unreasonable.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm not a great letter writer so I'll get right to the point.

I've always trusted my husband and felt relaxed when he had to take a business trip or stay in town and work late. It never occurred to me that he'd ever violate that trust. I'm not a frigid person, nor have I lost my looks in the twenty years we've been married, so it was a real blow when I discovered he had been untrue to me on two occasions—with the same girl.

He has begged me to forgive him, swears he doesn't want a divorce or a separation. He does not know why he did it—says he just felt like kicking up his heels.

I'm 37 years old and still care for him a great deal. Now I feel

I've wasted 20 years on someone who wasn't worth it. We have five children so I must find the answer. Can you help me?—EDGE OF DOOM

Dear Edge: You have five good reasons to forgive and forget so don't be a fool and let your injured pride drive you into an impossible corner from which you may never extricate yourself.

He has let you know he's sorry. He wants a chance to prove he can be a good husband. Now is your chance to be bigger than ever in his eyes. Don't miff it.

Dear Ann Landers: We are two teenage sisters who need your help. All our skirts are at least two inches longer than they should be. We've talked until we've run out of wind, but mom says the skirts are going to stay where they are and that's final. Almost every day mom quotes "what Ann Landers said" so we know she has respect for your opinion. Please be on our side. Thank you. — LONG SKIRTED SISTERS

Dear Sisters: Hem lengths should be guided to a degree by fashion trends. But common sense and good judgment is more important than any trend.

Each of us knows better than Trigrere or Dior what our legs look like. If you gals want your

Patricia Sorby Bride Of Thomas Mannebach

Father Stephen Mayrand performed the 11 a.m. single ring ceremony at St. Anne's Church today for Patricia Ann Marie Sorby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sorby, Escanaba Rte. 1, and Thomas H. Mannebach Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Mannebach, 1311 3rd Ave. S.

Tall vases holding pink and white gladiolus decorated the altars.

The bride wore a gown of lace over taffeta with cap sleeves, Sabrina neckline and ballerina length skirt. Lace gloves complemented the gown. Her veil was held by a crown of pearls and sequins. A small cross pendant, with a tiny diamond, gift of her parents, was her jewelry. She carried pink sweetheart roses and pink and white pompons. Her father escorted her to the altar.

Maid of honor, Patricia Kolger, wore a baby blue chiffon ballerina length dress with a matching crown and veil and she carried pink and white carnations.

Kerchief caps are taking over in the summer outdoor scene. The cap with the "little girl" look (left) is a softly brimmed white pique cloche, held in place with white chiffon ties. For luncheon or evening, small white pillbox (center) is kept in place by polka

Turkey One Of Best Buys On Today's Market

By The Associated Press

It's a good time to talk turkey, even if Thanksgiving is a full season and a half away.

Many stores are featuring the big birds as warehousemen seek to move out frozen stocks ahead of the fall influx.

As a consequence, prices are attractively low in many areas.

Best bargains are in larger birds. Smaller ones, however, lend themselves better to spit roasting outside on hot days.

Red meat bargains are harder to find than they have been, but meat supplies are plentiful and careful shopping will turn up many items on "special."

One national chain offers smoked hams at 29 cents a pound for shank ends at its New York area markets. Over the country, other pork features include chops, roasts, spareribs and steaks.

Hot spells have hurt local supplies of fresh vegetables in some places, but most areas have attractive prices on cabbage, carrots, cucumbers, lettuce, green onions, squash and potatoes.

Other vegetables featured regionally include beets, spinach, okra, radishes, eggplant and peppers.

Fruit offerings include watermelon, peaches, bananas, grapes, strawberries and, regionally, blueberries, limes and plums.

Grocery counter items on special include peanuts and vegetable oils. Canned tuna is also marked down in some stores.

Mrs. Vincent Christensen of Neenah visited her mother, Mrs. Henry Norman, and other relatives this week.

Short Skirts Puzzle Pastor

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—The Rev. N. J. Ezekiel, head of the Lutheran Church of India, is puzzled by one aspect of American life.

"With so much wealth in your country, with so much money to buy beautiful cloth," he said Wednesday at a church conference, "I'm surprised American girls and women wear their skirts so short."

Homemaking Tips

DOUBLE DUTY

A good way to get some use out of your wedding slippers of white satin is to have them tinted to match your favorite summer cocktail dress, and wear them all summer.

Some cooks like to add a quarter teaspoon of cream of tartar to a pie meringue that calls for three egg whites and six tablespoons of sugar. The cream of tartar should be beaten with the egg whites before the sugar is completely dissolved.

Quick supper dish: heat two cups of medium white sauce with a can of flaked tuna, a buffet size can of drained tiny green peas, a cup of thinly sliced celery crescents and a cup and a half or so of cooked noodles. Do your heating over hot water.

Meat to be used for swiss steak usually needs to be pounded. If there's no meat mallet in the house, use edge of a heavy saucer.

Esky And Manistique Clash For LL Crown

Escanaba and Manistique Little Leaguers will meet at 2 this afternoon at the Escanaba Field for the Area 4 championship and the right to represent the area in the District tournament in Escanaba next week. Manistique moved into the finals by virtue of a 12 to 1 win over Marquette while Escanaba squeezed by Munising 3 to 0.

Rooms are needed to house four teams for the District tournament to be held in Escanaba next weekend. In the 13 years Escanaba has been in the program, Escanaba boys have been housed in homes in Midland, Stevens Point, Green Bay, Bessemer, Wausau, Des Moines, Fort Worth and Crystal City among others during their tournament trips. People have rooms available are asked to call Mrs. Tom Ferguson at ST 6-4792.

With leadoff man Pete Rushford showing the way with a perfect day at bat — two walks and three hits — including a three-run homer in the second, Manistique was off to an early 4-1 lead. They exploded for seven more runs in the fourth inning as they batted around while Marquette was rotating pitchers. Meanwhile Gary Sample scattered four hits in going the route — struck out seven and walked three.

Escanaba's victory came a little harder as they faced Dave Wickstrom, one of the best eleven year old pitchers seen in this area. Steve Miketnac was tough in the clutches and got through the first inning without giving up a run although he issued a walk and was touched for two hits. Pete Ross put Escanaba out in front with a solo home run to the gravel pit in the top of the second.

Rick Lancour led off the third and fifth innings with walks and

Pinch Hit Double Starts Tigers On Road To Victory

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Only two teams have allowed the Detroit Tigers do better than 50-50 against them — the Kansas City Athletics and the Los Angeles Angels.

But for seven innings Friday night, the Tigers almost forgot that the Angels were their friends.

They were behind 5-4 until pinch hitter Whitey Herzog lined a double into right center, driving in two runs.

From then on the Detroiters had no trouble. They tallied three runs in the eighth and four in the ninth, dumping the Angels 10-5.

The ninth-place Tigers now have a 6-4 edge on the seventh-place Angels this season, just as they have on the eighth-place Athletics.

It was the first trip to the West Coast as Tiger manager for Charlie Dressen. Willie Smith marked the occasion by picking up his first major league victory. Smith, who pitched just the seventh inning, was the third of four Tiger pitchers. Don Mossi protected his decision by setting the Angels down in order the final two innings.

The Tigers picked on five Angel hurlers for 14 hits, three of them by Rocky Colavito.

After the Angels had taken a 5-3 lead, Colavito started the Tiger rally in the eighth with his 13th home run of the season.

Then Bill Bruton doubled, Bill Freehan walked and Herzog — batting for Smith — doubled them home.

In the ninth, Dick McAuliffe and Colavito singled and Bruton was walked. Julio Navarro then took over Angel pitching duties from Art Fowler, who was given the loss for yielding Herzog's double. Fowler now is 3-2.

Cash greeted Navarro with a two-run single and Bubba Phillips brought Bruton home with a squeeze bunt. Bill Freehan ended the scoring by singling Cash home.

The Angels ran up their early lead with two runs in the first and two in the fifth off Tiger starter Mickey Lolich, plus one in the seventh off Smith, who is 1-0.

The Tigers scored one in the fourth and two in the sixth off Angels' starter Don Lee before their last-minute explosions.

Jim Bunning (6-10) was to start for the Tigers tonight against the Angels' Ken McBride (10-7) in the second of their three-game series.

Dick Hart Keeps 3-Stroke Margin

DALLAS (AP) — Dick Hart, a steady young man with plenty of heart, beat the same three-stroke lead he had after one round into the third round of the Professional Golfers Association championship today. The question is whether he can hang on for two more days.

The feeling is growing that the answer may be "Yes."

"Don't write off this boy," his playing partners during the first 36 holes, Bob Keller and Dick Turner, said. "He doesn't shake easy. He's quite a player."

This 27-year-old assistant club professional from Hinsdale, Ill., is ahead of par despite the double extreme pressure of a demanding heat-blistered golf course and the anticipation that his wife, Joyce back in Illinois could present him with his second child any minute.

"I'm glad it's over," Hart said after firing an unspectacular but impressive 72 Friday that enabled him to maintain his lead over the world's greatest professionals with a 36-hole total of 138.

While National Open champion Julius Boros, Masters champion Jack Nicklaus and the likes of Tony Lema, Doug Ford and Bruce Crampton fired and fell back, Hart calmly drummed a one-over-par round at the 7,046-yard, par 36-35-71 Dallas Athletic Club course with 15 pars, one birdie and two bogies.

It was good enough to keep him well in control of the pace—three shots in front of Boros, Lema and par shy Shelley Mayfield, four or Nicklaus, Ford and 42-year-old Manuel de la Torre, five up on a foursome of Gene Littler, Crampton, Bill Johnston and Doug Sanders and a whopping nine shots ahead of golf's glamour boy Arnold Palmer.

It took a score of 151 or better for the two rounds to survive the cut to the low 75 players and ties for the third round today and the fourth round Sunday—portions of which will be televised nationally (CBS).

Finley Has Offer To Transfer Club

NEW YORK (AP)—Charles O. Finley, owner of the Kansas City Athletics, acknowledged today he received a proposal to move his club to Oakland, Calif., but said he was uncertain whether he would seek permission from the other American League club owners to move.

"I haven't gotten to that stage," Finley told The Associated Press in a long-distance telephone conversation from his home in La Porte, Ind. "I just don't know what I'll do."

"If I make the request, I may be turned down. I may get nine votes against me. Then again, the vote may be 10 to 0 in favor."

"I know this. If and when the American League puts a club in Oakland, it will be one of the greatest franchises in the country. The people there are very much interested in major league ball. And they are working very hard in an effort to bring a major league club to Oakland."

"They are not interested only in Kansas City. They would take any big league club they could get."

Finley emphasized he did not approach Oakland.

"They came to me," he said. "They gave me brochures and pictures of a projected stadium (seating 48,500). I'm certain every other American League club owner got the same brochures and pictures. The league would be nuts not to listen."

The Associated Press reported exclusively last Monday that Finley was seeking to move his A's to Oakland and had requested permission from owner Horace Stoneham of the San Francisco Giants for the use of Candlestick Park until the proposed Oakland stadium was ready.

"While I was in San Francisco a couple of weeks ago," said Finley, "I dropped in to see Mr. Stoneham. I said, 'We've received a proposal from the Oakland Coliseum Corporation inviting us to move our club to Oakland.'"

"If we do consider anything like that, what would be the possibility of playing in Candlestick Park for 1964 and 1965?"

"The answer was 'no.' Naturally, he would like to keep that area for himself. You can't blame him for that."

Such as the Washington Senators playing the best ball in the American League.

And a minor league failure like Don Lock, who batted under .200 in the International League just last year, breaking up game after game in the big leagues with time-lapse base hits.

Take Friday night.

The Senators, trailing the hard-hitting Twins in Minnesota, 4-1 after seven innings, rallied for four runs in the eighth and broke through again in the 13th to win 6-5. It was the cellar-dwellers' 11th victory in the last 14 games. No other club in the league can match that.

Lock slashed a two-out single to drive in the winning run.

In the eighth he singled in another run during the uprising against starter Jim Kaat and ace reliever Bill Dailley.

The 26-year-old outfielder, purchased last year despite a .194 batting average and a history of never hitting .300 in six years in the minors, slammed a home run his first time at bat.

Freeway Signs Study Requested

LANSING (AP)—Highway Commissioner John Mackie has asked the Michigan Good Roads Federation to appoint a committee to evaluate state policy on freeway signs indicating the availability of gas, food and lodging.

Mackie said he feels that "direct evidence from millions of motorists" shows the policy, established in compliance with federal law, is working well.

The request was made in a letter to Gardner Martin, president of the federation.

Mackie noted that the service sign policy recently drew sharp criticism from the Associated Petroleum Industries of Michigan, which aimed its attack specifically at the practice of posting "gas" signs only where a 24-hour station is located within a mile of the interchange.

Romney Urges Trading Surplus American Crops

DETROIT (AP)—Gov. George Romney Friday urged the United States and other nations with agricultural surpluses to find a way of trading rather than giving these surpluses to underdeveloped nations.

The governor, who urged development of new concepts in America's international trade policy, made the comments at a luncheon given in his honor by Detroit's consular corps.

Romney said new approaches to international trade must come soon if the U.S. and Europe are to help the developing nations of the world. He added that the aid cannot come in the usual manner of "reciprocal trade or lowering tariffs slowly."

Goldwater Draft In Michigan Picks Holden As Leader

MIDLAND (AP)—State Chairman of Commerce Director Creighton D. Holden, of St. Clair Friday was named Michigan chairman of the Draft Goldwater for President Committee.

Holden was selected at a meeting of 39 Michigan committee members.

S. Clifton White, national director of the Nixon for President campaign in 1960 and now coordinator of the Goldwater movement, said he would ask the Goldwater group's national chairman, Peter O'Donnell, to confirm the Michigan choice with a formal appointment from Washington.

Holden is director of the American Motel and Hotel Association and of the Southeast Michigan Tourist and Publicity Association and is president of the St. Clair Inn and Country Club.

Ford And Reuther Discuss Policies

DETROIT (AP)—Ford Motor Co. board chairman Henry Ford II and United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther met secretly this week for two hours, it was learned Friday.

Ford spokesmen said Reuther had arranged the meeting at UAW headquarters. Union officials said only that the meeting concerned "matters of national interest" and did not involve collective bargaining.

It was Ford's first visit to UAW headquarters since 1947, when he became president of Ford Motor Co.

Drowning Toll Down Slightly

Through July 15 this year, 103 persons have drowned and there have been 148 water accidents. This compares with 106 drownings and 170 accidents through July 9 last year.

Fight Highway

PLEASANT RIDGE (AP)—A committee claiming the support of 90 per cent of Pleasant Ridge's 3,800 citizens organized Thursday to try to keep the 1-696 freeway out of the half-mile-square city. "The expressway would kill us," said Philip Spelman, chairman of the newly formed Freeway Action Committee. The proposed alternate route the committee is fighting would run east and just south of West 10 Mile Road through Pleasant Ridge.

Maples Periled

Trucks Create Over 2,000 Jobs In Delta County

Delta County plays a vital role in making transportation Michigan's fourth largest industry, according to data compiled by the Michigan Trucking Association.

Based on figures reported by the U. S. Department of Commerce, Michigan State Highway Department and by the Michigan Trucking Association booklet "Truck Transportation in Michigan" reports that 2,556 trucks, valued at $2,854,400, were registered to owners in Delta County in 1961, the latest complete compilation available. This compared to 384,897 truck registrations, with a value of $427,485,550 throughout the state.

In the same year, 2,014 persons were gainfully employed in this county, with the total earnings of $11,163,602, from various types of direct or indirect service to the trucking industry. This figure compared to 292,163 truck employees, earning $1,619,459,509 throughout Michigan. State-wide, trucking pays one out of every eight Michigan paycheck-earners an average of $7,302 per year.

In addition to wages paid and trucks and other supplies and equipment purchased in this county, trucks also account for a substantial portion of taxes paid into Delta County revenue coffers.

This money was derived from Michigan motor vehicle owners who paid $224.5 million in special state highway-user taxes. Of this sum, Michigan's trucks paid $68.7 million, or 30.6 per cent, although they constitute only 11.5 per cent of all vehicles registered. These figures do not include an additional $41.9 million in special federal taxes.

Of $443,560, which represents the truck portion of all monies returned or expended in Delta County in 1961, $210,856 represented the truck portion of the county's share of user taxes and $232,704 the truck portion of state, federal and bond fund expenditures.

Brother-in-Law Dies

Mrs. Jennie Nelson received word that her brother-in-law, Chester Haney, died at his home in Detroit, Thursday, June 17. The Haney's are well known here through frequent visits at the Nelson home. Mrs. Jennie Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson left Friday to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Clara Boonenberg returned Wednesday from a week's vacation with relatives in Detroit and Grand Rapids. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Joe Thomas and three children of Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Pearl Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Ward were Friday visitors in Sault Ste. Marie.

Wages Rise

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Workers of the European Common Market countries saw their wages jump by 10 per cent last year. And unemployment has never been so low, a Common Market report said today.

Belinsky Takes Cue To Hawaii

HONOLULU (AP) — Play-pitcher Bo Belinsky, a big smile on his face and a pool cue in his left hand, arrived in Honolulu Friday, 55 days and four hours late to join the Hawaii Islanders of the Pacific Coast League.

He went directly from International Airport to a nearby night club to see an old friend, singer Bill Daniels.

Belinsky was optioned to the minor leaguers by the Los Angeles Angels May 25, but he balked at reporting until this week. He hasn't pitched a ball in more than a month and a half and said it was a 10-day to get back in shape.

The 26-year-old southpaw joked with newsmen at the airport. He was told by Islander pitcher Tom Morgan, an ex-Angel himself, that there would be a crowd to meet him but Honolulu's newspapers were on strike.

"Yeah, that's why I came," he said.

Explaining the pool cue, Belinsky said, "I understand there are a lot of players in the Islands. I'm a player too—of pool."

Belinsky, who achieved overnight fame last year by pitching a no-hitter against Baltimore, was due in Honolulu Friday morning. He missed the plane in Los Angeles.

"Like, 9 a.m. is too early, man," the wise-cracking pitcher said in explanation. The plane he caught left the West Coast at 1 p.m. PDT.

Belinsky refused to report to Hawaii in May and was placed on the disqualified list. This cut him off the payroll, and he will stay off until he pitches again. It has been estimated the two-month layoff will cost him $5,000.

Ailing Golfers Pace Open Field

CINCINNATI (AP) — Maybe it pays off to have ailments when you play in the Women's National Open Golf Tournament.

Leading the field into today's final 36 holes of the $9,000 tournament is Mary Mills, a 23-year-old blonde with a back ailment which she says bothers her swing and which has limited her competition this year to eight tournaments.

Her closest competitor is Louise Suggs, the veteran pro from Delray Beach, Fla., who has been out of action for a full year because of ill health.

Miss Mills, who seems very nonchalant about the whole thing, tied the Kenwood Country Club course record Friday with a 3-under-par 70 for a 36-hole total of 141, five under par.

Miss Suggs clipped one stroke off par for the second straight day and now has 72-72-144.

Miss Suggs, of course, has been around the pro circuit a long time and is a former top money winner. Except for her, however, the big name pros will have their work cut out for them in today's finish.

Death Driver Held For Manslaughter

LANSING (AP) — A truck driver who said his brakes failed when he plowed through a red light into the side of a car July 5, killing five persons, has been charged with manslaughter at Lansing Municipal Court.

A warrant authorized by the Ingham County prosecutor charged 23-year-old Enid Schultz with "unlawfully, recklessly, wilfully and wantonly" driving his truck with the knowledge the air brakes were not working.

Schultz demanded examination at his arraignment Friday before Judge Earl McDonald. A July 25 hearing was set, and he was released on $750 bond.

DETROIT (AP) — Linda Barman, 11, of Detroit, died today of injuries suffered when she was struck by a car while riding a bike on a city street July 15.

JACKSON (AP) — Funeral services were held today for Howard L. Gentry, 69, a nationally known geologist. He was president of companies in the United States and Canada. Gentry was killed when his light plane crashed Thursday near West Branch.

LANSING (AP) — Modernization of M 53 between Almont and Ingham City in Lapeer County has begun, reports the State Highway Department. The project will cost $324,329.

Synthetic Skislide

MIDLAND (AP) — Discovery of a synthetic ski slope material was announced Friday by Dow Chemical Co. Spokesmen said a patent has been issued to Dow for the discovery which remains in the development stage. Inventors said a sample slope of the latex and plastic material was evaluated by several experienced skiers who indicated it was a satisfactory substitute for snow.

Mexico Recovers Stockyards From El Paso District

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — With mingled emotions, residents on both sides of the border here learned Thursday that Mexico is going to recover El Paso's stockyards district in settlement of a century-old boundary dispute.

Under an agreement made public by presidents of both countries, the United States is pledged to return the 437-acre Chamizal strip. This is a sliver of land which once was on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande. In 1864, a flood caused the river to change course and the land then was on the United States side.

Once a worthless stretch of brush, the Chamizal sector lies between the El Paso business district and the city of Juarez, across the river. Since the stream chose a new route in 1864 the area has acquired 3,750 residents, nearly all of Mexican descent, and 332 buildings.

Long Overdue

In common with the two heads of state, El Paso leaders applauded the international pact as long overdue in payment of a just claim.

Not all the reaction was favorable. Some Chamizal residents don't want to see their homes cross the border and said they're dubious about obtaining fair compensation.

Tourists who cross the international bridges from El Paso to eat, drink, shop and see the bullfights in Juarez know the Chamizal strip as a largely drab section mingling $5,000 to $10,000 homes, shacks, apartments and business structures—office buildings, a public school, a neat packing plant and two stockyards.

There was no great surprise at the Chamizal plans, announced simultaneously by Presidents Kennedy and Lopez Mateos. They first talked about the matter in June of last year when Kennedy went to Mexico.

In addition to restoring 437 acres to Mexico, the settlement calls for rerouting the Rio Grande in a concreted channel to make it the border line again at all points here. This will cost an estimated $6 million and the two nations will split the cost.

Becomes Federal Zone

Mexico, for its part, will cede to the United States half of an area named Cordova Island, an untenanted peninsula extending into this country. It contains 396 acres of pastures and fields.

Each government will turn over land and other property to the other free of private claim.

To prevent Juarez bars and night spots from moving closer to the new international boundary, the Chamizal strip will become a federal zone. Mexican leaders have voiced dreams of making it the campus for a huge international university, graced by scores of fine buildings.

Mechanics of transferring the land, at a cost of about $28 million to this country, are expected to require at least four years. Congress must give final approval. Six new bridges will be required.

More Jobs

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Kelvinator Division of American Motors Corp. starts full production here Monday of all rear door assemblies for the Rambler car. The added work increased the plant's employee numbers by 400 to a new total of 3,100.
